Adopted by Grand Chapter October, 1955 (Revised 1978)

ARTICLE XVI.

Suspension for Non-Payment of Dues.

Sec. 1. Non-Payment of Dues. Dues are due and payable in advance on January 1st of each year and when a member fails to pay same on or before April 1st thereafter, said member becomes delinquent and the Secretary shall, within (20) days, notify her in writing of her delinquency; and if said delinquent member fails to pay her dues on or before June 1s thereafter, or if same are not remitted for good and sufficient cause, she shall automatically stand suspended for non-payment of dues, without action of the Chapter, and such suspension shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting on that date or of the first meeting of the chapter thereafter. Written notice of such suspension shall be sent by the Secretary to all suspended members within (10) days after such suspension. Failure of the Secretary to give the above notice or to record the suspension shall not affect the automatic suspension of the member.

If you are unable to pay your dues, please write the Secretary advising the reason therefor, so that the Chapter may give the matter proper consideration. This letter must be in the hands of the Secretary on or before the last stated meeting dated:

_____ / _____ / _____

Please remember that all members whose dues are not paid on or before the 1st day of June, or remitted for good and sufficient cause will be AUTOMATICALLY SUSPENDED.
